

GOLD HORSES

Therapy horses,
worth their weight in gold.

Give children the gift of their lives,
and sponsor one of our Gold Horses
to continue their incredible work as
therapy horses.

Rehab4Rehab takes in retired racehorses and gives them the time, space and training that they require to be therapy horses for children in need. Each horse deserves and receives five star care. Horses are available to sponsor, which helps us to provide them with their food, blankets, daily maintenance and ongoing training.

While many horses are rehomed to loving new families, occasionally we find a horse that shines their brightest working with children, who are destined to be therapy horses. These horses are the cornerstones of our programs; they are worth their weight in gold and we simply couldn't do without them. These are our Gold Horses, and they save more lives than any others.
